

The COLORADO WINE NEWS

January – March 2007

Benton Lane

The 2005 Pinot Noir, Willamette Valley, $25, spent 10 months in French oak and opens with light earth and a hint of blueberry before flavors of blueberry and candied raspberry laced with light, dry tannin. It finishes medium-broad and medium-long. Well put together.