

February 2002

87 | Benton-Lane $30
1999 Oregon Reserve Pinot Noir Tight and crisp for now, showing mostly a green edge to the fruit and the graham cracker flavors of new oak, this has a wet-clay earthiness that should develop into complexity as the fruit opens with age. (1,900 cases) Benton-Lane Winery, Monroe, OR