

2006 BENTON-LANE PINOT NOIR

THE WINE

When Oregon Pinot Noir is hitting on all eight cylinders there's no other wine that can match it. Pinot Noir grown in a cool climate like Eugene has two great qualities, a captivating spicy character and incredible black cherry flavors and this wine is packed with both. Since 1988, we have learned to ferment our Pinot Noir gently, thereby releasing the sexy mixed berry tones followed by a silk, velvety texture. Wow!

CUISINE

This ruby red wine is a must for fresh Pacific Northwest salmon, either grilled or sauced. It has the depth to accompany lightly sauced veal or pasta dishes as well as smoked or grilled chicken.
